

The Wisconsin no call list law responds to the needs and desires of Wisconsin. There is no reason why this law would be dismantled or weakened to respond to the demands of vendors.

I interpret this to be action by businesses and interests with enough money to persuade government to manipulate the consumer.